

- Fun, engaging; made me want to come to class.
- Interesting, useful, fun.
- Left me with an understanding of ESL teaching and how it is important to plan lessons for the ESL students in your class, provided me with a knowledge base that I can now build on.
- Practical information and ideas; Kathleen Bortolin.
- The professor the resourced we worked on.
- Great information, very applicable.
- The instructor.
- Interesting, extremely relevant to teaching, I learned lots, didn't feel overwhelmed, and understood expectations!
- The presenters and projects made this course very engaging and exciting. The presenters provided us with relevant information in this field of study.
- Organized, fun intro activities, range of material, all accessible and useful, not too much workload.
- Interesting, very applicable.
- She had opportunity to meet w/someone in the ESL profession.
- The way it was conducted on understanding ESL students and their struggles.
- This course is so relevant for all teachers. This course should be a requirement in the education program.
- Informative, should be a requirement, helps prepare and make you understand how to prepare more.
- Very effective professor.
- The teacher and the content. The content learned in this class were relevant to the teaching profession and the instructor also provided opportunities for students to make field experience visits.
- Fun, engaging, relevant.
- Applicable and practical.
- Relevant, interesting > even grammar! Useful assignments! We all get resources; everyone collected, and the chance to do a school observation was awesome.
- The prof was the main one. The course – probably speakers and activities.
- Understanding different cultures and struggles of ESL students, and how we can teach them English thru inclusive education.
- The openness to have class discussions and the opportunity to meet with someone from the community for an interview. The instructor!
- Good for linking emotional and academic needs of students.
- Helps us work towards becoming ESL specialists. Very interesting topic, great variety of information. No textbook, relevant handouts. Instructor's amazing, positive attitude.
- Very informative.

Please provide specific suggestions as to how this course could be improved.

- None. Seemed a bit rushed, but there was a ton to cover. Loved the course.
- Make Kathleen teach all sections. Amazing teacher!
- Should be mandatory for all teachers.
- Break it up into two courses. A lot of material to cover.
- Experience in a ESL classroom for all students.